ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I owe a debt of gratitude to many people who helped in making this project a success. To begin with, I would like to thank Sr. A. Naviwala who, working on behalf of Darul Uloom al-Madania, prepared the first draft, which I edited. I would also like to thank Mawlana Ibrahim Memon for his valuable feedback. I am also indebted to my First year students at Darul Uloom (2011–2012 academic year) who suggested important improvements and pointed out the many mistakes. My preparatory year students at Darul Uloom (2011–2012), including Ahmad Hatim who proof-read the draft for the second edition, have also given me valuable feedback. I have greatly benefitted from their questions, comments and suggestions. May Allah reward them, and all others for their contributions and help.

FOREWORD

This is the second edition of the revised Ten Lessons of Arabic, which in turn was based on the famous Urdu language primer of Arabic grammar Das Sabaq [Ten Lessons] by Mawlana ‘Abd al-Salam Kidwai Nadvi. Das Sabaq in Urdu has been a part of the Aalim course curriculum in Western madrasahs for a number of years. In 2011, I was commissioned by Darul Uloom al-Madania to edit a translation that they had prepared by revising an existing translation of the text that was available online. I completed the editing in a few months. During this process, I took liberty with the translation to make the content more accessible and beneficial to the student. The edited version was then used as a textbook for Darul Uloom’s eAlim program. At that time, I received a number of suggestions from eAlim instructors and students regarding improvement of the text.

Later, I got the chance to teach the first four chapters myself during Ramadan 2011 to a sincere student. At that time, I realized the many flaws that had remained, especially in the first four chapters. I revised these chapters thoroughly to make them more student friendly. Later still, I got the chance to go over the whole text during the first term of 2011–2012 academic year, while teaching it to first year students at Darul Uloom. During this time, a number of issues came up and I made the changes accordingly. The first online edition was released at that time.

Later, during the last two terms of 2011–2012 academic year, I got the chance to teach it again; this time, to the preparatory year students at Darul Uloom. More issues came up and I fixed them. Now, at the end of this academic year (2011–2012), I have gone through the whole text again and revised it thoroughly. I have added more explanation and tables in many chapters. I have also revised the word lists and exercises, and reduced the overall number of vocabulary words. While teaching, I had felt that memorizing too many new words was taking the students’ attention away from the real thing, viz. grammar rules and construction of the language. In many cases, plurals of words are given, but they are merely for reference. Students should not be required to memorize these. The vocabulary lists still appear quite formidable. However, this is because of the many repeated words. If they were to be taken out, the overall count will be much less.

This text has been revised multiple times. In the process, it has changed considerably and those looking for an exact translation of Das Sabaq will be disappointed. However, I believe it is now much more beneficial. I have tried my best, with help from many of my students, to remove all of the errors in it. Nevertheless, as is the case with all human endeavors, there are bound to be some mistakes in it, and definitely, room for improvement. I hope that the readers, students and teachers, will apprise me of any such issues. Your feedback (suggestions, constructive criticism, etc.) is valuable to me. You can contact me at the email address given at the end.

This is a beginner-level text but notwithstanding its ease, it should be studied with a teacher. It is also expected that the student will be studying other Arabic books along with it as well. I would recommend Fundamentals of Classical Arabic vol. 1 (by Dr. Husain Abdul Sattar) and Durus al-Lughah al-'Arabiyyah vol. 1 (by Dr. V. Abdur Rahim). I got the chance to teach both during this academic year. They are both excellent books. There is some overlap between them and Ten Lessons. However, this should not be seen as redundancy, but as re-inforcement. Of the three, Fundamentals is for Sarf, Ten Lessons and Durus al-Lughah are for general Arabic. The last one is probably the best in terms of its gradual and progressive introduction to Arabic language concepts. However, the former two provide concise information for Sarf and Nahw, which is spread out in Durus al-Lughah. I recommend that Ten lessons and Durus al-Lughah be started at the beginning of the semester, while Fundamentals be started in the second half.

Since this is a beginner-level text; therefore, Arabic words have not been transliterated exactly, keeping in mind that most people at this stage will not be comfortable with Arabic transliteration schemes. Rather, their approximate equivalents have been used that are easier to read for the untrained. Nevertheless, non-English words have been italicized.

As for duals and plurals of Arabic words, the original Arabic duals and plurals have not been used; rather, their plurals have been created the English way by adding an 's' to the singular. Thus, two dammahs is used instead of dammahtain. The word still remains italicized to reflect its non-English origin.

The following abbreviations appear in the text:

S = Singular	D = Dual	P = Plural
M = Masculine	F = Feminine

Many times, these have been used in combination. Thus, we also have the following abbreviations:

(S/M)	=	'Singular masculine' which means one male
(D/M)	=	'Dual masculine' which means two males
(P/M)	=	'Plural masculine' which means multiple males
(S/F)	=	'Singular feminine' which means one female
(D/F)	=	'Dual feminine' which means two females
(P/F)	=	'Plural feminine' which means multiple females

I hope and pray that this revised translation will be of benefit to the students. I also pray that Allah Most High accepts this humble effort from all those who have contributed to it in any way, and gives us the power to continue with more. I also request the readers and all those who benefit from it in any way to remember us all in their prayers.

And He alone gives success.

وَصَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى خَيْرِ خَلْقِهِ سَيِّدِنَا وَمَوْلَانَا مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ أَجْمَعِينَ

LESSON 1

مُبْتَدَأٌ وَخَبَرٌ

Subject and Predicate

Consider the following sentences: ‘Mahmood is knowledgeable,’ ‘Haamid is pious,’ ‘Khalid is a conqueror.’ These sentences and other sentences of the same pattern are called mubtada (مُبْتَدَأٌ) and khavar (خَبَرٌ). The subject of the sentence is called mubtada and it comes at the beginning of the sentence. The predicate of the sentence is called khavar and it is the second part of the sentence. For example, in ‘Mahmood is knowledgeable,’ Mahmood is the subject and the information about him being knowledgeable is the predicate. Therefore, ‘Mahmood’ is mubtada and ‘knowledgeable’ is khavar.

To translate a sentence of this type into Arabic, follow these steps:

1. Take out the “is”.
2. Translate the words into Arabic.
3. Give two dammahs (ضَمَّتَيْنِ) to both words in the sentence.

Examples:

1. Mahmood is knowledgeable.

مَحْمُودٌ عَالِمٌ

2. Haamid is pious.

حَامِدٌ صَالِحٌ

3. Khalid is a conqueror.

خَالِدٌ فَاتِحٌ

4. Muhammad (Allah bless him and give him peace) is a messenger.

مُحَمَّدٌ (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) رَسُوْلٌ

5. Naasir is a friend.

نَاصِرٌ صَدِيْقٌ

In the above examples, the mubtada is a definite noun.¹ However, if it is a common noun, an alif-laam will be added to the beginning of the word. For example, if the first sentence was ‘the man is knowledgeable,’ it would be translated as الرَّحْلُ عَالِمٌ.

It is important to note here that whenever alif-laam comes before a word, the tanween becomes a single fathah (فَتْحَةٌ), kasrah (كَسْرَةٌ) or dammah (ضَمَّةٌ) as the case may be, eg. رَجُلٌ becomes الرَّجُلُ. Alif-laam is mainly used in place of the definite article “the.” It gives distinction to a word. For example, ‘a man’ is any man and ‘the man’ is a specific man. Sometimes alif-laam is used for the meaning of ‘a whole category/class.’ For example, الْإِنْسَانُ means ‘mankind’ and الْحَمْدُ means ‘all praise.’

If the mubtada is feminine, then the khobar will also have to be feminine. To change a word to its feminine form, add the round taa (ة) to the end of the word. For example, ‘the man is pious’ is written as الرَّجُلُ صَالِحٌ. Now if you want to say ‘the woman is pious,’ you will say الْمَرْأَةُ صَالِحَةٌ. Similarly, ‘the girl is knowledgeable’ will be written as الْبِنْتُ عَالِمَةٌ.

LESSON 2

مُضَافٌ وَمُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ

Consider the following sentences: ‘slave of Allah,’ ‘messenger of Allah,’ ‘door of the house,’ ‘the Messenger’s order,’ ‘Mahmood’s pen,’ ‘Khalid’s book,’ ‘Hameed’s house.’ These phrases and those with a similar pattern are called mudaaf (مُضَافٌ) and mudaaf ilayhi (مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ). One thing (mudaaf) is attributed to the other (mudaaf ilayhi). Many times, the relationship is that of the possessed to its possessor. The possessed is called mudaaf and the possessor is called mudaaf ilayhi. For example, in the phrase ‘Mahmood’s pen,’ the pen is owned by Mahmood. Therefore, ‘pen’ is mudaaf and ‘Mahmood’ is mudaaf ilayhi.

To translate a sentence of this type into Arabic, follow these steps:

1. Take out ‘of’ or the apostrophe and the ‘s,’ which show possession.
2. If you have taken out the apostrophe and the ‘s,’ reverse the sequence. Write the second word first and the first word second. If you took out ‘of,’ then there is no need to reverse the sequence.
3. Replace the English words with their Arabic equivalents.
4. Give the mudaaf a single dammah and the mudaaf ilayhi two kasrahs.

For example, to translate the phrase ‘Mahmood’s pen’ to Arabic, first take out the apostrophe and ‘s.’ It becomes ‘Mahmood pen.’ Then, change the order of the words to ‘pen Mahmood.’ Next, replace the words with their Arabic equivalents. You get قلم محمود. Now, give the mudaaf a single dammah and the mudaaf ilayhi two kasrahs. You get قَلَمٌ مُحَمَّدٍ. Following the same method, ‘Khalid’s book’ becomes كِتَابٌ خَالِدٍ. For a sentence with ‘of,’ such as ‘ring of gold,’ first remove the ‘of.’ It becomes ‘ring gold.’ Now, replace the words with their Arabic equivalents. You get خاتم ذهب. Now, give the mudaaf a single dammah and the mudaaf ilayhi two kasrahs. You get خَاتَمٌ ذَهَبٍ.

The rules concerning alif-laam have been mentioned in the first lesson. Those rules will apply here also. Thus, if there is an alif-laam at the beginning of the mudaaf ilayhi, the two kasrahs will become one kasrah. خَاتَمٌ ذَهَبٍ will become خَاتَمِ الذَّهَبِ. It should be noted here that the mudaaf never accepts alif-laam or tanween. For instance, in the above example, خَاتَمِ will not accept alif-laam or tanween.

LESSON 3

الْفِعْلُ الْمَاضِي

Past Tense Verb

In this lesson, we will look at the various forms a past tense verb takes in accordance with the number and gender of the one(s) performing the action. To begin with, it should be noted that فَعَلَ means “he (S/M) did,” فَعَلُوا means “they (D/M) did,” فَعَلُوا means “they (P/M) did,” فَعَلَتْ means “she (S/F) did” and so on. These verbs are in active voice (فِعْلٌ مَعْرُوفٌ).

In Arabic, each verb form is called صِبْغَةً (seeghah). Looking at the table below, we can see that there are fourteen seeghahs in it. Each of these seeghahs has a name. This name identifies, whether it is singular, dual or plural, whether it is masculine or feminine, and whether it is first person, second person or third person. In Arabic, the words for singular, dual and plural are وَاحِدٌ, تَنْثِيَةٌ, and جَمْعٌ, respectively; first person is called مُتَكَلِّمٌ, second person is called حَاضِرٌ, and third person is called غَائِبٌ; and masculine is called مُدَكَّرٌ, and feminine is called مُؤَنَّثَةٌ. Thus, singular masculine of the third person will be called وَاحِدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ in Arabic. Dual masculine of the third person will be called تَنْثِيَةٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ, and plural masculine of the third person will be called جَمْعٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ, and so on.

In the case of the first person, because the gender is not identified, and there is no separate seeghah for dual, therefore, the two seeghahs, singular first person and plural first person will be called وَاحِدٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ and جَمْعٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ, respectively.

We are listing below the verb forms (also called conjugations) of the past tense verb in active voice. These should be memorized with their meanings.

Past Tense Verb Forms in Active Voice (الْفِعْلُ الْمَاضِي الْمَعْرُوفُ)

Person	Gender	Plurality	English	Arabic
Third Person (عَائِبٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	He did.	فَعَلَ
		Dual	They did.	فَعَلَا
		Plural	They did.	فَعَلُوا
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	She did.	فَعَلَتْ
		Dual	They did.	فَعَلْنَا
		Plural	They did.	فَعَلْنَ
Second Person (حَاضِرٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	You did.	فَعَلْتَ
		Dual	You did.	فَعَلْتُمَا
		Plural	You did.	فَعَلْتُمْ
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	You did.	فَعَلْتِ
		Dual	You did.	فَعَلْتُمَا
		Plural	You did.	فَعَلْتُنَّ
First Person (مُتَكَلِّمٌ)	Masculine/ Feminine	Singular	I did.	فَعَلْتُ
	Masculine/ Feminine	Dual/ Plural	We did.	فَعَلْنَا

Before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 3.1 would be written in Arabic. This is as follows:

Table 3.1a
الْفِعْلُ الْمَاضِي الْمَعْرُوفُ

الصِّيغَةُ	إِسْمُ الصِّيغَةِ
فَعَلَ	وَاحِدٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلَا	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلُوا	جَمْعٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلَتْ	وَاحِدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلْنَا	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلْنَ	جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فَعَلَتْ	وَاحِدٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْتُمَا	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْتُمْ	جَمْعٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْتِ	وَاحِدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْتُمَا	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْنَ	جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فَعَلْتُ	وَاحِدٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ
فَعَلْنَا	جَمْعٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ

Note: In the tables above, فَعَلَ has been translated as “he did” and فَعَلَتْ as “she did.” It should be kept in mind that these forms could also mean “it (masculine) did” and “it (feminine) did,” respectively. The same is true of other forms. The masculine could be any masculine thing or person, and the feminine could be any feminine thing or person.

Changing Active Voice to Passive Voice

Now, to change these verbs into passive voice, follow the following procedure. Put a dammah on the first letter (ف) of فَعَلَ, and a kasrah on its second letter (ع). It will become فُعِلَ. Its meaning will change to “he (S/M) was done upon.” This is passive voice (فِعْلٌ مَجْهُولٌ). Similarly, فَعَلَ will become فُعِلَا, فَعَلُوا will become فُعِلُوا, فَعَلْتُ will become فُعِلْتُ, and so on. We are listing below the verb forms (also called conjugations) of the past tense verb in passive voice. These should be memorized with their meanings.

Past Tense Verb Forms in Passive Voice (الْفِعْلُ الْمَاضِي الْمَجْهُولُ)

Person	Gender	Plurality	English	Arabic
Third Person (عَائِبٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	He was done.	فُعِلَ
		Dual	They were done.	فُعِلَا
		Plural	They were done.	فُعِلُوا
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	She was done.	فُعِلَتْ
		Dual	They were done.	فُعِلْنَا
		Plural	They were done.	فُعِلْنَ
Second Person (حَاضِرٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	You were done.	فُعِلْتَ
		Dual	You were done.	فُعِلْتُمَا
		Plural	You were done.	فُعِلْتُمْ
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	You were done.	فُعِلْتِ
		Dual	You were done.	فُعِلْتُمَا
		Plural	You were done.	فُعِلْتُنَّ
First Person (مُتَكَلِّمٌ)	Masculine/ Feminine	Singular	I was done.	فُعِلْتُ
	Masculine/ Feminine	Dual/ Plural	We were done.	فُعِلْنَا

Again, before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 3.2 would be written in Arabic.

Table 3.2a
الفعل الماضي المجهول

الصيغة	اسم الصيغة
فُعِلَ	واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلَا	تثنيةٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلُوا	جمعٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلَتْ	واحدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلْنَا	تثنيةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلْنَ	جمعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
فُعِلَتْ	واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلْتَمَا	تثنيةٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلْتُمْ	جمعٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلَتْ	واحدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلْتَمَا	تثنيةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلْنَّ	جمعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
فُعِلْتُ	واحدٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ
فُعِلْنَا	جمعٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ

Note: In these two tables, فُعِلَ has been translated as “he was done” and فُعِلَتْ as “she was done.” As mentioned above in the note after Tables 3.1 & 3.1a, these forms could also mean “it (masculine) was done” and “it (feminine) was done,” respectively. The same is true of other forms. The masculine could be any masculine thing or person, and the feminine could be any feminine thing or person.

Creating Conjugation Tables from وَاحِدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ

Having memorized these two tables, the next stage is to identify the verb forms of other verbs by comparing them to these tables. For this, we need to know that وَاحِدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ of any verb table is considered to be the basic verb form. Generally, it is composed of three letters. The first is called فَاءُ كَلِمَةٍ, the second is called عَيْنُ كَلِمَةٍ, and the third is called لَامُ كَلِمَةٍ. Now all that remains to be done is to identify which letter of the new verb matches which letter of the basic verb form of the tables given above. Consider, the verb نَصَرَ (he helped). Comparing this to فَعَلَ of Table 3.1 or Table 3.1a, we can see that in this verb, ن is the فَاءُ كَلِمَةٍ, ص is the عَيْنُ كَلِمَةٍ, and ر is the لَامُ كَلِمَةٍ. Once, this is established, it is easy to compare any of its forms with the rest of table.

Below, we are providing a list of the basic forms (وَاحِدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ) of various verbs and their meanings. Their remaining forms can be created from them.

LESSON 4

فِعْلٌ، فَاعِلٌ، مَفْعُولٌ

Verb, Subject, Object

In Arabic, the word sequence in a verbal sentence is as follows: verb (فِعْلٌ), then subject (فَاعِلٌ), and finally the object (مَفْعُولٌ).

فِعْلٌ (verb) = the action being done.

فَاعِلٌ (subject) = the person doing the action.

مَفْعُولٌ (object) = the person or the thing to whom or to which the action is being done.

Rule: The فَاعِلٌ gets a dammah (or two dammahs as the case may be), and the مَفْعُولٌ gets a fathah (or two fathahs).

Examples:

1. 'Haamid helped Mahmood.' In this sentence, the فِعْلٌ is 'helped,' Haamid is the فَاعِلٌ and Mahmood is the مَفْعُولٌ. When translating this sentence into Arabic, the Arabic word for helped (نَصَرَ) will come first followed by the fai'il, Hamid (حَامِدٌ) with two dammahs, and then the maf'ool, Mahmood (مَحْمُودًا) with two fathahs. The final sentence will be نَصَرَ حَامِدٌ مَحْمُودًا.
2. 'A servant (خَادِمٌ) opened (فَتَحَ) a door (بَابًا).' The same order used for the last example (فِعْلٌ first, فَاعِلٌ second and مَفْعُولٌ last) will apply here. Remember, the فَاعِلٌ will get two dammahs and the مَفْعُولٌ will get two fathahs. The full sentence will be فَتَحَ خَادِمٌ بَابًا.

Notes:

- If there is an alif-laam on any word, the tanween (double harakah) at the end will change to a single harakah (the two fathahs will change to a single fathah, the two kasrahs will change to a single kasrah, and the two dammahs will change to a single dammah). Thus, 'the servant opened the door' will be written as فَتَحَ الخَادِمُ البَابَ. Here, the alif-laam caused the double harakah to be dropped, and only a single harakah remained.

- Mudaaf and mudaaf ilayhi can combine to form a فَاعِلٌ or a مَفْعُولٌ. For example:

فَتَحَّ خَادِمٌ مَحْمُودٍ الْبَابَ

Mahmood's servant opened the door.

فَتَحَّ الْخَادِمُ بَابَ الْبَيْتِ

The servant opened the door of the house.

فَتَحَّ خَادِمُ مَحْمُودٍ بَابَ الْبَيْتِ

Mahmood's servant opened the door of the house.

In this case, it is important to remember that the mudaaf does not accept an alif-laam or a tanween. However, the mudaaf ilayhi can accept both. Moreover, the effect of being a فَاعِلٌ or مَفْعُولٌ will show on the mudaaf alone and not the mudaaf ilayhi.

LESSON 5

الْحُرُوفُ الْجَارَةُ

Prepositions

The following particles are used as prepositions in Arabic. They occur quite frequently.

Table 5.1
Prepositions (الْحُرُوفُ الْجَارَةُ)

in; regarding	فِي	with; at	بِ
from; than	مِنْ	to; up to	إِلَى
on; upon	عَلَى	for; belongs to	لِ
as, like	كَ	up to, until	حَتَّى
about; from; regarding	عَنْ	by (for oath)	وَ

The words that come after these prepositions end with a kasrah on the final letter. Below, we give examples of each of these.

زَيْدٌ فِي الدَّارِ	=	Zayd is in the house.
كَتَبْتُ بِالْقَلَمِ	=	I wrote with the pen.
مِنَ الْبَيْتِ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ	=	from the house to the mosque
جَلَسَ زَيْدٌ عَلَى الْكُرْسِيِّ	=	Zayd sat on the chair.
السيَّارَةُ لَزَيْدٍ	=	The car belongs to Zayd.
أَحْمَدُ كَأَسَدٍ	=	Ahmad is like a lion.
نِمْتُ حَتَّى الصُّبْحِ	=	I slept until the morning.
سَأَلْتُ عَنِ الْكِتَابِ	=	She asked about the book.
وَاللَّهِ	=	By Allah!

Besides the ten prepositions listed above, there are seven other prepositions that occur less frequently. Since they do occur; therefore, it is appropriate to mention them as well. They are as follows:

1. تَ: by (for oath). This is specific with Allah, the Exalted. Example: تَاللَّهِ – By Allah!

- 2 & 3. مُنْذُ وَ مُذٌ: since. These are used to define a time period. Example: مَا ذَهَبْتُ إِلَى الْمَدْرَسَةِ مُنْذُ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ – I have not gone to the school since Friday.
4. رَبٌّ: many a, so many. The noun used after رَبٌّ is always singular. Example: رَبٌّ رَجُلٍ نَصَرْتُهُ – I helped so many men.
5. خَلَا: besides, except. Example: عَلَّمْتُ الْأَطْفَالَ خَلَا زَيْدٍ – I taught the children except Zayd.
6. حَاشَا: besides, except. Example: مَنَعْتُ الرِّجَالَ حَاشَا عَمْرٍو – I stopped the men except ‘Amr.
7. عَدَا: besides, except. Example: جَاءَ الْقَوْمُ عَدَا خَالِدٍ – The people came except Khalid.

LESSON 6

الضَّمَائِرُ

Pronouns

A pronoun is called ضَمِيرٌ in Arabic. Its plural is ضَمَائِرٌ. There are a number of different types of pronouns in Arabic. We are listing below those pronouns that are unattached (مُنْفَصِلٌ). These dameers are not joined to any word but appear as separate words. They can appear as mubtada. These should be memorized.

Table 6.1
Unattached (مُنْفَصِلٌ) Pronouns

Person	Gender	Plurality	Pronouns
			English	Arabic
Third Person (عَائِبٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	he	هُوَ
		Dual	they	هُمَا
		Plural	they	هُم
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	she	هِيَ
		Dual	they	هُمَا
		Plural	they	هُنَّ
Second Person (حَاضِرٌ)	Masculine (مُذَكَّرٌ)	Singular	you	أَنْتَ

Examples of Usage of Unattached Dameers

- هُوَ زَيْدٌ – He is Zayd.
 أَنَا طَالِبٌ – I am a student.
 أَنْتَ مُجْتَهِدٌ – You are hardworking.

Examples of Usage of Attached Dameers

These pronouns can come after nouns, verbs and particles as shown in the examples below.

1. After a noun, showing attribution/possession (إِضَافَةٌ):

- قَلَمُهُ – his (S/M) pen
 كِتَابُكَ – your (S/M) book
 كِتَابِي – my book
 كِتَابُهَا – her (S/F) book.

2. After a verb, indicating the object (مُفْعُولٌ):

- نَصَرْتُهُ – I helped him
 أَمَرْتُكَ – I commanded you
 نَصَرْتَنِي – you (S/M) helped me.

3. After a particle:

- فِيهِ – in it
 لَهُ – for him
 مِنْكَ – from you (S/M)
 إِلَيْنَا – to/towards us
 إِنَّكُمْ – indeed you (P/M)
 عَلَيْهِ – on him.

LESSON 7

الْفِعْلُ الْمَضَارِعُ

Present and Future Tense Verb

We have already discussed the past tense verb and pronouns. In this lesson, we will discuss فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ which is equivalent to present and future tense. فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ (past tense) and فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ (present/future tense), as well as ضَمَائِرُ (pronouns) are the foundations of the Arabic language. These should be memorized properly. This will make all future lessons much easier. We are listing below the conjugations (verb forms) of فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ (present and future tense verb) in active voice (مَعْرُوفٌ).

Verb Forms of (فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ) in Active Voice (مَعْرُوفٌ)

First Person (مُتَكَلِّمٌ)	Masculine/ Feminine	Singular	I am doing or will do	أَفْعَلُ
	Masculine/ Feminine	Dual/ Plural	We are doing or will do	نَفْعَلُ

Before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 7.1 would be written in Arabic. This is as follows:

Table 7.1a
الْفِعْلُ الْمَضَارِعُ الْمَعْرُوفُ

Creating Passive Voice فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ

In lesson 3, we discussed the method of converting فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَعْرُوفٌ (past tense active voice) to فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَجْهُولٌ (past tense passive voice). Now, we discuss the method of converting فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ from active to passive voice. يَفْعَلُ, which means “he does or will do,” is in active voice (مَعْرُوفٌ). To convert this فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَعْرُوفٌ to فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْهُولٌ, we give the first letter a dammah and the third letter a fathah. يَفْعَلُ becomes يُفْعَلُ becomes تَضْرِبُ, يُفْعَلُ becomes يُفْعَلُونَ, يُفْتَحُ becomes يُفْتَحُونَ, أَنْصُرُ becomes أَنْصُرُونَ, and so on.

Verb Forms of (فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ) in Passive Voice (مَجْهُولٌ)

Before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 7.2 would be written in Arabic. This is as follows:

Table 7.2a
الْفِعْلُ الْمَضَارِعُ الْمَجْهُولُ

الصِّيغَةُ	إِسْمُ الصِّيغَةِ
يُفْعَلُ	وَاحِدٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
يُفْعَلَانِ	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
يُفْعَلُونَ	جَمْعٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ
تُفْعَلُ	وَاحِدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
تُفْعَلَانِ	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
يُفْعَلْنَ	جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ غَائِبٌ
تُفْعَلُ	وَاحِدٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
تُفْعَلَانِ	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
تُفْعَلُونَ	جَمْعٌ مُذَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
تُفْعَلِينَ	وَاحِدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
تُفْعَلَانِ	تَثْنِيَّةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
تُفْعَلْنَ	جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
أُفْعَلُ	وَاحِدٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ
نُفْعَلُ	جَمْعٌ مُتَكَلِّمٌ

Note: When a passive verb is used, the فَاعِلٌ (subject) is not mentioned. Rather, the مَفْعُولٌ (object) takes the place of the فَاعِلٌ (subject) and is called فَاعِلٌ نَائِبٌ (subject of the passive verb) or فَائِمٌ مَقَامَ فَاعِلٍ (substitute subject). Since it takes the place of the فَاعِلٌ, it also gets a dammah.

Examples:

فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ بِجَهْلٍ: ضَرِبَ الْوَلَدُ – The boy was hit.
فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ بِجَهْلٍ: مَنَعَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ – The woman was stopped.
 يُفْتَحُ الْبَابُ – The door will be opened.
 يُكْسَرُ الْجِدَارُ – The wall will be broken.

Note: In the tables above, the first letter of each seeghab of فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ, both مَعْرُوفٌ and بِجَهْلٍ, is called حَرْفُ الْمَضَارِعِ (plural: حُرُوفُ الْمَضَارِعِ). As can be seen in the table, these are ن, أ, ت, and ي.

Relationship between the Seeghahs of فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ and فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ

Before we move on, it will be useful to keep in mind that the 'ayn kalimah' of the وَاحِدٌ مُذَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ of a فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ and فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ can vary in a number of different ways. It can have a fathah, kasrah or dammah in فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ and/or فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ. It is beyond the scope of this book to discuss all of these combinations. However, at this stage, it is, nevertheless, important to take note of the harakah on the 'ayn kalimah' of any given فِعْلٌ مَضَارِعٌ and its corresponding فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ.

LESSON 8

الصِّفَةُ وَالْمَوْصُوفُ

Adjective

Consider the following phrases: ‘truthful Muslim,’ ‘pious man,’ ‘large mosque,’ ‘small book,’ ‘trustworthy servant.’ These phrases and other phrases of similar pattern are called صِيفَةٌ (adjective) and مَوْصُوفٌ (the described). In the phrase ‘small book,’ ‘small’ describes the ‘book.’ Thus, ‘small’ is صِيفَةٌ (adjective), and ‘book’ is مَوْصُوفٌ (the described).

To convert such a phrase into Arabic, follow the following steps:

1. Translate the individual words into Arabic.
2. Reverse the order of the words so that the first word comes second and the second word comes first.
3. Give both words one or two dammah(s) (depending on the situation).

Example: We want to convert the phrase, ‘truthful Muslim’ into Arabic. First, we translate the individual words into Arabic. We get صادقٌ مُسْلِمٌ. Next, we reverse the order to get مُسْلِمٌ صَادِقٌ. Then, we give two dammahs to both the words. We get مُسْلِمٌ صَادِقٌ. Similarly, if we want to convert ‘pious man’ into Arabic, we will first translate the individual words into Arabic – صالحٌ رَجُلٌ. Next, we will reverse the order of the words – رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ. Lastly, we will give two dammahs to both words – رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ.

States of Nouns:

Before we move on, it will be useful to keep in mind that each noun is always in a certain state. There are three states in total for nouns. These are as follows:

1. رَفْعٌ: This is the state when a noun has one or two dammahs at the end. Such a noun is called مَرْفُوعٌ. For example, اَلْبَيْتُ or بَيْتٌ.
2. نَصْبٌ: This is the state when a noun has one or two fathahs at the end. Such a noun is called مَنْصُوبٌ. For example, اَلْبَيْتَ or بَيْتًا.
3. جَرٌّ: This is the state when a noun has one or two kasrahs at the end. Such a noun is called مَجْرُورٌ. For example, اَلْبَيْتِ or بَيْتٍ.

Note: There is another state which is specific to verbs. This is حَزْمٌ. This is the condition in which a سُكُونٌ appears at the end of a word or its substitute (ن in the case of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ) is dropped from the end. Such a word is said to be مُحْزَمٌ. For example, لَمْ يَضْرِبْ (he did not hit).

Additional Rules for صِفَةٌ and مَوْصُوفٌ:

1. Both the صِفَةٌ and the مَوْصُوفٌ have to be in the same state, i.e., if one is مَرْفُوعٌ, then the other should also be مَرْفُوعٌ. Similarly, if one is مَنْصُوبٌ, the other should also be مَنْصُوبٌ. For example, consider رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ. Since رَجُلٌ has two dammahs at the end, it is مَرْفُوعٌ; therefore, صَالِحٌ will also be given two dammahs to make it مَرْفُوعٌ. Similarly, if for some reason رَجُلٌ was مَنْصُوبٌ, صَالِحٌ would also have to be مَنْصُوبٌ. The phrase would then have been رَجُلًا صَالِحًا such as in نَصَرْتُ رَجُلًا صَالِحًا (I helped a pious man). If رَجُلٌ had been مُجْرُومٌ, صَالِحٌ would also have been مُجْرُومٌ. The phrase would then have been رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ such as in ذَهَبْتُ إِلَى رَجُلٍ صَالِحٍ (I went to a pious man).
2. Both the صِفَةٌ and the مَوْصُوفٌ should either be ma'rifah or nakirah. Thus, if the مَوْصُوفٌ has an alif-laam, the صِفَةٌ should also have an alif-laam. For example, if رَجُلٌ were to be changed to الرَّجُلُ, صَالِحٌ would also change to الصَّالِحُ.
3. The gender of the صِفَةٌ and the مَوْصُوفٌ should be the same. Thus, if the مَوْصُوفٌ is feminine, the صِفَةٌ should also be feminine. To change a word to its feminine form, just add a round taa (ة) at the end of the word. For example, 'a pious teacher (F)' will be أُسْتَاذَةٌ صَالِحَةٌ and 'the pious teacher (F)' will be الْأُسْتَاذَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ.
4. If the مَوْصُوفٌ is a proper noun, it will not accept alif-laam. For non-proper nouns alif-laam is used to change nakirah into ma'rifah. However, all proper nouns are considered ma'rifah by default even without an alif-laam. Since, the مَوْصُوفٌ is a proper noun; therefore, the صِفَةٌ will require an alif-laam to make it ma'rifah. For example, when converting 'the conqueror Khalid' into Arabic, we will not add alif-laam to خَالِدٌ because it is already a proper noun. However, we will add an alif-laam to the صِفَةٌ (فَاتِح) because it is not a proper noun. The sentence will be خَالِدٌ الْفَاتِحُ.

The following examples illustrate this point:

'The king Mahmood' will be مُحَمَّدٌ الْمَلِكُ.

'The commander Taariq' will be طَارِقٌ الْقَائِدُ.

'The poet Ghalib' will be غَالِبٌ الشَّاعِرُ.

These sentences can also be read (not written) as مُحَمَّدٌ بِالْمَلِكِ, خَالِدٌ بِالْفَاتِحِ, غَالِبٌ بِالشَّاعِرِ and طَارِقٌ بِالْقَائِدِ.

10. دَخَلَ مُحَمَّدٌ الْقَائِدُ عَاصِمَةَ الرُّومِ

LESSON 9

الْأَمْرُ وَالنَّهْيُ

Imperative (Positive Command) & Prohibitive (Negative Command)

The command is used to demand an action. That verb which contains a command to do something is called أَمْرٌ, for example, ‘read!’ and ‘write!;’ while that verb which contains a command to not do something is called نَهْيٌ, as in ‘do not go’ and ‘do not fear.’

Creating أَمْرٌ for the Second Person

أَمْرٌ of any verb is created from its respective فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ. In this lesson, we will study the method of making أَمْرٌ for the second person. This is as follows.

1. First, give a jazm to that seeghah of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ, whose أَمْرٌ you wish to create. This means that that seeghah which ends with a dammah, should have its dammah replaced with a sukoon, while the noon should be dropped from that seeghah which ends with a noon. The صِيغَةُ حَاضِرٍ مُؤَنَّثٍ صِيغَةُ حَاضِرٍ مُؤَنَّثٍ is an exception to this.² Also, in the case of صِيغَةُ مُذَكَّرٍ حَاضِرٍ, an alif should be added at the end, after dropping the noon.
2. Now, remove the حَرْفُ الْمُضَارِعِ, which in this case is ت. The seeghah should be unreadable.
3. Now, add a هَمْزَةُ الْوَصْلِ at the beginning and give it a kasrah.³

This process is illustrated in the following table.

² In fact, this صِيغَةُ حَاضِرٍ مُؤَنَّثٍ is one of those words whose ends do not accept any vowel change. Such words are called مَنْبِيئٌ.

³ Hamzat al-wasl appears at the beginning of a word. It is not pronounced when there is a word before the word with a hamzat al-wasl. Giving it a kasrah is the basic principle. There is more detail to it, and is mentioned later in the lesson.

تَفَعَّلْنَ	تَفَعَّلْنَ	فَعَّلْنَ	اِفْعَلْنَ

Based upon the above procedure, we get the following seeghabs of second person imperative in active voice. These must be memorized.

Second Person Imperative In Active Voice (أَمْرٌ حَاضِرٌ مَعْرُوفٌ)

Person	Gender	Plurality	English	Arabic
Second Person (حَاضِرٌ)	Masculine (مُدَكَّرٌ)	Singular	(You) Do!	اِفْعَلْ

		Dual	(You) Do!	(You) Do!	اِفْعَلَا
		Plural	(You) Do!	(You) Do!	اِفْعَلْنَ

Before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 9.2 would be written in Arabic. This is as follows:

Table 9.2a
الأمر الحاضر المعروف

الصيغة	اسم الصيغة
أفعل	واحد مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
أفعلًا	تثنية مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
أفعلوا	جمع مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
أفعلني	واحد مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
أفعلًا	تثنية مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
أفعلن	جمع مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ

Examples:

1. From تَفْتَحُ (you are opening/will open), we get اِفْتَحْ (open!).
2. From تَجْلِسُ (you are sitting/will sit), we get اِجْلِسْ (sit!).
3. From تَسْمَعُ (you are hearing/will hear), we get اِسْمَعْ (hear!).
4. From تَضْرِبُ (you are hitting/will hit), we get اِضْرِبْ (hit!).
5. From تَذْهَبُ (you are going/will go), we get اِذْهَبْ (go!).

Creating نَهْيٌ for the Second Person

Like أَمْرٌ, the نَهْيٌ of any verb is also created from its respective فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ. In this lesson, we will study the method of making نَهْيٌ for the second person. It is partially similar to the method given above for أَمْرٌ, but there are also differences. The process is as follows.

1. Like in the case of أَمْرٌ, give a jazm to the فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ. This means that that seeghab which ends with a dammah, should have its dammah replaced with a sukoon, while the noon should be dropped from that seeghab which ends with a noon. As before, the صيغة for جمع مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ will be an exception to this. Also, in the case of جمع مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ, an alif should be added at the end, after dropping the noon.

2. Now, instead of removing the حَرْفُ الْمُضَارِعِ, just place a لَا before it. This لَا is a لَا التَّاهِيَةُ, and is called حَرْفُ النَّهْيِ.

This process is illustrated in the following table.

Table 9.3

Creating Second Person Prohibitive In Active Voice (نَهْيٌ حَاضِرٌ مَعْرُوفٌ)

[From Left To Right]

Original seeghahs of Second Person فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ	Give jazm to the seeghahs	Add a laa al-nahiyah at the beginning
تَفْعَلُ	تَفْعَلْ	لَا تَفْعَلْ
تَفْعَلَانِ	تَفْعَلَا	لَا تَفْعَلَا
تَفْعَلُونَ	تَفْعَلُوا	لَا تَفْعَلُوا
تَفْعَلِينَ	تَفْعَلِي	لَا تَفْعَلِي
تَفْعَلَانِ	تَفْعَلَا	لَا تَفْعَلَا
تَفْعَلْنَ	تَفْعَلْنَ	لَا تَفْعَلْنَ

Based upon the above procedure, we get the following seeghahs of second person prohibitive in active voice. These must be memorized.

Table 9.4

Second Person Prohibitive In Active Voice (نَهْيٌ حَاضِرٌ مَعْرُوفٌ)

Person	Gender	Plurality	English	Arabic
Second Person (حَاضِرٌ)	Masculine (مُدَّكَرٌ)	Singular	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلْ
		Dual	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلَا
		Plural	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلُوا
	Feminine (مُؤَنَّثٌ)	Singular	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلِي
		Dual	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلَا
		Plural	(You) Don't do!	لَا تَفْعَلْنَ

Again, before we move on, it would be useful to see how Table 9.4 would be written in Arabic. This is as follows:

Table 9.4a
النهي الحاضر المعروف

الصيغة	اسم الصيغة
لا تفعل	واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
لا تفعلوا	تثنيةٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
لا تفعلوا	جمعٌ مُدَكَّرٌ حَاضِرٌ
لا تفعلني	واحدٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
لا تفعلوا	تثنيةٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ
لا تفعلن	جمعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ حَاضِرٌ

Examples:

1. From تفتَح (you are opening/will open), we get لا تفتَح (do not open!).
2. From تجلس (you are sitting/will sit), we get لا تجلس (do not sit!).
3. From تسمع (you are hearing/will hear), we get لا تسمع (do not hear!).
4. From تضرب (you are hitting/will hit), we get لا تضرب (do not hit!).
5. From تذهب (you are going/will go), we get لا تذهب (do not go!).

The vowels (harakah) of أمرٌ and نهيٌ

Many times we find أمرٌ to be on the pattern of إفعل as in اسمع. However, this is not always the case. Sometimes, it follows the أفعل pattern as in انصُر, and sometimes the إفعل pattern as in اضرب. The reason behind this difference is that the particular vowel pattern of أمرٌ and نهيٌ is dependent on the (ع) letter of the seeghah of واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ of فعلٌ مُضَارِعٌ. The (ع) letter of this واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ governs the أمرٌ in two ways, and نهيٌ in one way.

The one way where it governs both أمرٌ and نهيٌ is the harakah of the (ع) letter of أمرٌ and نهيٌ. Here, the harakah has to correspond exactly. Thus, when the (ع) letter of واحدٌ مُدَكَّرٌ غَائِبٌ of فعلٌ مُضَارِعٌ has a fathah, or kasrah, or dammah, the (ع) letter of أَمْرٌ and نَهْيٌ will have the same vowel. For example, in يَسْمَعُ the (ع) letter is (م) and has a fathah. Therefore, in its أَمْرٌ and نَهْيٌ forms, the (م) will also get a fathah. Its أَمْرٌ will be اسْمَعُ and its نَهْيٌ will be لَا تَسْمَعُ. In يَضْرِبُ there is a kasrah under (ر); therefore, its أَمْرٌ and نَهْيٌ forms will be إِضْرِبُ and لَا تَضْرِبُ respectively. In يَنْصُرُ, there is a dammah on (ص); therefore, its أَمْرٌ and نَهْيٌ forms will be أَنْصُرُ and لَا تَنْصُرُ respectively.

The other way in which (ع) letter of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ governs أَمْرٌ is with respect to the hamzat al-wasl of أَمْرٌ. This hamzat al-wasl either gets a kasrah or a dammah. It cannot have a fathah. If the (ع) letter of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ has a dammah, the hamzat al-wasl of أَمْرٌ will also have a dammah. For example, the أَمْرٌ of يَنْصُرُ will be أَنْصُرُ because (ص) is the (ع) letter of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ and it has a dammah. And if the (ع) letter of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ has a fathah or a kasrah, then in both cases the hamzat al-wasl of أَمْرٌ will get a kasrah. For example, the أَمْرٌ of يَسْمَعُ is اسْمَعُ, and the أَمْرٌ of يَضْرِبُ is إِضْرِبُ.

It should be noted that there is no hamzat al-wasl in نَهْيٌ. It is only dependent on the (ع) letter of فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ for the harakah on its own (ع) letter.

LESSON 10

الْوَاحِدُ، التَّثْنِيَّةُ، الْجَمْعُ Singular, Dual, Plural

We have seen in the previous lessons that verb forms are sometimes single, sometimes dual, and sometimes plural.⁴ Similarly, nouns can also be single, dual and plural. For example, مُؤْمِنٌ means ‘one believer,’ مُؤْمِنَانِ means ‘two believers,’ and مُؤْمِنُونَ means ‘three or more believers.’ Below, we give the rules for duals and plurals of nouns.

تَّثْنِيَّةٌ – Dual: It is formed by placing at the end of a singular (وَاحِدٌ) one of the following:

- An أَلْفٌ preceded by a fathah and followed by a نُونٌ with a kasrah i.e. [ـَانِ] for the state of رَفْعٍ.
e.g. رَجُلَانِ two men
- A يَاءٌ preceded by a fathah and a نُونٌ with a kasrah i.e. [ـَيْنِ] for the states of جَرٌّ and نَصْبٌ.
e.g. رَجُلَيْنِ two men

جَمْعٌ – Plural: It is formed by placing at the end of a singular (وَاحِدٌ) one of the following:⁵

- A وَاوٌ preceded by a dammah and followed by a نُونٌ with a fathah i.e. [ـُونَ] for the state of رَفْعٍ.
e.g. مُسْلِمُونَ Muslims
- A يَاءٌ preceded by a kasrah and followed by a نُونٌ with a fathah i.e. [ـِينَ] for the states of جَرٌّ and نَصْبٌ.
e.g. مُسْلِمِينَ Muslims

⁴ It should be remembered that when the verb forms are dual or plural, it is not the action that is dual or plural. The action taking place is only one. It is only the doers of the action who are two or more.

⁵ There is more detail to it, which can be studied in more advanced books.

For the ease of the students, a chart showing مُسْلِمٌ and its dual and plural forms in each of the different states is given below.

Table 10.1
Singular, Dual, and Plural

	Singular (الْوَاحِدُ)	Dual (التَّائِيَةُ)	Plural (الْجَمْعُ)
In the state of رَفْعٍ	مُسْلِمٌ	مُسْلِمَانِ	مُسْلِمُونَ
In the state of نَصْبٍ	مُسْلِمًا	مُسْلِمَيْنِ	مُسْلِمِينَ
In the state of جَرٍّ	مُسْلِمٍ	مُسْلِمَيْنِ	مُسْلِمِينَ

Examples:

- Two men went to the market.
ذَهَبَ رَجُلَانِ إِلَى السُّوقِ
- The scholars gave a speech in the mosque.
خَطَبَ الْعَالِمُونَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ
- Khalid helped two oppressed persons.
نَصَرَ خَالِدٌ مَظْلُومَيْنِ
- Naseer hit the oppressors.
ضَرَبَ نَصِيرٌ الظَّالِمِينَ
- I wrote with two pens.
كَتَبْتُ بِقَلَمَيْنِ
- A man from amongst the believers came.
جَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

Note: The نُونُ of dual and plural is dropped when it appears at the end of mudaaf. For example,

- قَلَمًا زَيْدٍ (Zayd's two pens)

This was originally قَلَمَانِ زَيْدٍ but the نُونُ was dropped because it appeared at the end of mudaaf.

- فَرَسًا رَجُلٍ (a man's two horses)

This was originally فَرَسَانِ رَجُلٍ but the نُونُ was dropped because it appeared at the end of mudaaf.

3. مُسْلِمُونَ مِصْرَ (Muslims of Egypt)

This was originally مُسْلِمُونَ مِصْرَ but the نُونُ was dropped because it appeared at the end of mudaaf.

4. طَالِبُونَ عِلْمٍ (seekers of knowledge)

This was originally طَالِبُونَ عِلْمٍ but the نُونُ was dropped because it appeared at the end of mudaaf.
